Teacher's Notes

Lesson: Common Phrasal Verbs: Crossword (B1)

Level: B1

Time: 20 mins +

Preparation:

- Print a copy of page 1 for each student.
- Students should have studied common B1 phrasal verbs before doing this exercise.

Teaching Method:

Step 1:

- Ask the students to read through the clues before they begin. You might want to pre-teach some of the vocabulary in the clues. Alternatively, you can allow them to use a dictionary or translation app while doing the crossword to find definitions for proceed, encounter, store, quit, anticipate, illness, recover, distress, exhaust, establish, reference source, postpone, delay, function, and appear.

Step 2:

- Students complete the crossword before comparing their answers with a partner.

Step 3:

- Check answers with the class, writing the answers on the board and providing further explanations and examples in use if necessary.

Step 4:

- Tell the students to look at the images and, in pairs, say what phrasal verb is being represented by each one (break up, look after, look up, give up, turn up, and break down).

Step 5: (Optional)

- Students work in pairs, and try to write a sentence for each of the phrasal verbs in the crossword.
