

What type of house do you think the window belongs to?

Is it an apartment, a block of flats, a detached or semi-detached house, a terraced house? Could it be a farmhouse? A skyscraper? A caravan?

Which floor? (ground, first, second, 42nd?)

1

Do you think it's a new or an old building? Why?

What's the weather like? How about the overall atmosphere?

- rainy, cloudy, sunny, windy, stormy, hot, warm, cold, freezing, breezy
- quiet, busy/bustling, charming, beautiful, exciting, lively, picturesque, touristy, calm, inspiring, enchanting, bright, unspoiled
- bleak, boring, deserted, desolate, dull, horrifying, polluted, rundown, ugly, crowded, ancient, contemporary, magical
- majestic, modern, mystical, strange, traditional, cosmopolitan, unique, unusual, peaceful, wild

2

What can you see through the window?

Is it a city? A small town? Perhaps a village? The countryside? How do you know?

3

Here are a few words that might help you:

window frame, window pane, windowsill, urban, rural, flat, hilly, mountainous, dry, fertile, road, street, tree, bush, plants

How does this window view make you feel?

calm, happy, intrigued, interested, excited, fascinated, curious, confused, afraid, nervous, horrified, indifferent, amused, inspired

4

What type of person can you imagine living here?